

The Romanian Association of Classical Psychodrama invites you to a new, historically charged, scene, to experiment, explore and be together. Hațeg Land (“Țara Hațegului”), Sarmizegetusa, is the location of the 2018 Summer School, a place where some of the most important monuments of architecture and archeology in our country can be found, an area at the confluence of history, art and spirituality, and, through our presence, with psychotherapy, too.

WHY here ?!

Because Ulpia Traiana Sarmizegetusa was the capital of the Roman province of Dacia, established through an order of Emperor Trajan;

Because the area was the source of inspiration for Jules Verne’s book, „The Carpathian Castle”;

Because it is the first area in Romania where several species of herbivorous dinosaurs (Telmatosaurus, Zalmoxes, Magyanosaurus, Struthiosaurus) and a species of carnivorous dinosaurs (Elopteryx) were discovered;

Because we’ve liked exploring and spending time together in the middle of the summer for more than 10 years!

Thus, we are expecting you in a magical space, which welcomes meetings with yourselves and with others, through psychodrama sessions, moments of joy, and of tele, in a fairytale-like, magic, and lively space.

VENUE AND ACCOMMODATION:

Sarmis Pension is situated in the beautiful depression of the Hațeg Land, at the foot of the Retezat Mountains; Sarmizegetusa is about 8 km away from the pass connecting the regions of Banat and Transylvania, called Tapae in the past - now, the Iron Gates of Transylvania.
